

BIOSKETCH

JONATHAN QUARTEY

Jonathan has garnered nearly 20 years' experience and extensive international exposure in Physiotherapy, having had the opportunity to serve as a practitioner, lecturer and researcher.

His research interests are generally with the ever-dynamic trends in physiotherapy and particularly in the areas of musculoskeletal physiotherapy (orthopaedics and sports) and physiotherapy education. Jonathan's expertise is geared towards creating positive turning points in musculoskeletal physiotherapy practice and education with respect to current global trends

Jonathan has participated in, facilitated and presented at numerous health professions scientific conferences, workshops and continuing education programmes and is currently a Member of the Medical Sub-Committee of Ghana Olympic Committee for the Tokyo 2020 Olympic games. He has served on numerous occasions as a member of the technical teams of sporting disciplines in Ghana, particularly for football and athletics for local and international assignments. He is the current Team Physiotherapist for Ghana's senior men's national football team (the Black Stars).

He is past President, Ghana Physiotherapy Association and past Chairman, Ghana Physiotherapy Association National Council.

Jonathan is Head, Health Professions Education Unit, College of Health Sciences, University of Ghana, Head, Department of Physiotherapy and Chairman, Ethics and Protocol Review Committee, School of Biomedical and Allied Health Sciences, College of Health Sciences, University of Ghana. He is Chairman of the Africa Region of the World Confederation for Physical Therapy and Reviewer for a peer reviewed Journal.

Jonathan holds a PhD (Physiotherapy), an MSc in Health Professions Education and an MSc in Physiotherapy (Orthopaedics and sports). His recent publications are;

Quartey J., Davids JA. and Kwakye SK. (2019) Motivation of Clinical Year Students in the School of Allied Health Sciences at the University of Ghana. Journal of Preventive and rehabilitative Medicine. Vol. 1, No, 1, pp 75-79 doi:10.21617/jprm.2019.0102.1

Quartey J., Ernst M., Bello A., Opong-Yebaoah B., Bonney E., Acquah K., Asomaning F., Foli M., Asante S., Schaemann A., and Bauer C. (2019). Comparative joint position error of patients with non-specific neck disorders and asymptomatic aged-matched individuals. South African Journal of Physiotherapy, 75(1), 7 pages. doi:<https://doi.org/10.4102/sajp.v75i1.467>

Quartey, J., Afidemenyo., and Kwakye, S. (2019). Athletes' expectations about physiotherapy in sports injury rehabilitation in greater Accra region. Hong Kong Physiotherapy Journal. Vol. 39, No. 2, 1–14. DOI: 10.1142/S1013702519500094

Quartey, J., Davor, S., and Kwakye, S. (2019). An injury profile of basketball players in Accra, Ghana. South African Journal of Physiotherapy, 75 (1), 8 pages.
doi:<https://doi.org/10.4102/sajp.v75i1.467>

Ampiah, P.K., Quartey, J. and Kwakye S.K. (2018). Knowledge of Stroke among hypertensive-diabetic patients at the National Diabetes Management and Research Centre of Korle-Bu Teaching Hospital in Ghana. Journal of Preventive and Rehabilitative Medicine, Vol. 1, No. 1, pp. 46-62. doi:10.21617/jprm.2018.0101.6

Boakye, H., Quartey, J., Ahenkorah, J. and Baidoo N.A.B. (2018). Knowledge, attitude and practice of physiotherapists towards health promotion in Ghana. South African Journal of Physiotherapy 74(1), a 443. <https://doi.org/10.4102/sajp.v74i1.443>

Quartey, J., and Kwakye, S. (2018). Barriers to evidence-based physiotherapy practice for stroke survivors in Ghana. South African Journal of Physiotherapy, 74 (1),. doi:<https://doi.org/10.4102/sajp.v74i1.423>