

Charlotte McKnight-Burton

Centre Administrator

Centre Partner Institution – University of Bath

Charlotte is the Centre Administrator for the Centre for Sport, Exercise and Osteoarthritis Research Versus Arthritis, based in Bath and joined the Centre in September 2020.

She has worked for the University of Bath for over five years, providing wide-ranging administrative support and high-quality customer service delivery to clients and programme delegates for the Executive Education Department.

Charlotte has over ten years' experience as a Personal Assistant and conference administrator. She has worked in the UK and internationally.